Purim and Passover

A month apart, these two festivals are commemorations of redemption. Passover enshrines a slave nation liberated by the miraculous hand of God, who punishes Pharaoh and all of Egypt. The newly freed Israelites journey in the wilderness and finally arrive in the Promised Land.

Purim on the other hand, tells the story of a diaspora Jewish community facing annihilation and at the last minute thwarting Haman and his henchmen and living to see another day. They prevail, but their precarious existence is always tenuous outside of Israel and ever fraught with danger.

Which festival is most like our current Jewish situation? Purim of course. It is you and I, the American Jew of 2026. We are bombarded with hate speech and physical attacks and yet we survive. Each day brings another challenge to our existence. With Purim, it was just one man fomenting a pogrom. Today, there are many threats from the right, from the left and now right down the center. We are living in a time where Jew hatred is normalized and actually growing even as we speak.

Not a pretty picture to be sure. For the second half of the twentieth century we enjoyed a vacation from anti semitism. That vacation is over. But we should remind ourselves of the Purim story. Then and now, the Almighty has had our back. Back then the Jewish People led by Esther and Mordechai stood together, rediscovered their sacred tradition, were blessed with allies, and were willing to fight to survive.

The question remains whether we will replicate that narrative today. There are no unifying Jewish leaders on the horizon. We are badly divided in many ways. Some of us are rediscovering our tradition and yet others are uncommitted and disinterested. Some of us are standing up to hate, and yet others are pretending it is not their problem.

Yet, if our history teaches us anything, it is that we should never bet against the Jewish People. Like ancient Persia, we are going to survive and thrive. Anti Semitism is a bad bet. So keep studying Torah, continue to attend synagogues, support Jewish education for our youth, and of course always stand with Israel. Otherwise be vigilant and stay optimistic. We are here and God is not done with us by a long shot. How we will get through this is unknown, but one thing I know is that we will, all of us if we keep on keeping on and cling to our Jewish values.

Purim and Pesach Sameach,

Am Yisrael Chai! Rabbi Raphael Adler

You can lead by example.
Create your Jewish Legacy by leaving a gift to Temple Anshei Shalom in your estate planning.

We invite you to include TAS in your Will as a beautiful way to demonstrate your dedication and connection to our community, and to our future.

Legacy donors are kind and caring individuals like you who are making a promise to future generations for a thriving and sustainable Jewish community.

It costs nothing during your lifetime, but it will have a powerful impact on the community for years to come.

Message From TAS President

The moment has arrived that I am the 2026 Temple Anshei Shalom President.

We have a new executive board; we will be working together to keep our Temple Anshei Shalom alive and well for the foreseeable future.

Now that I am here, I see all the challenges and the opportunities that lie ahead. I am unusually optimistic, but at the same time I recognize many of the issues that we will have to confront as we move forward.

I believe in honest discussion and gain from ideas that I hope you will provide. I am a team TAS player, and with your help and support, I know that we will be able to grow our membership, and we will be able to add programs and activities that will benefit all our members.

I do have concerns that I wish to share with you all.
We have lost membership over the years due to many issues that we were unable to avoid.

We have a very large building that once was always filled with members for all Shabbat and Yom Tovim services.

Our membership size has shrunk.

We are occupying the same space with a smaller membership base; fortunately, we have leased off a portion of this space to DOS congregation.

Utility costs are always rising; we continue to look at ways to conserve our usage of energy.

We will be looking at ways of increasing membership. Providing more entertaining activities, but at the same time reminding us all that our clergy will continue to inspire us all with all our religious and program services.

Rabbi Adler always delivers wonderful lectures on so many fascinating Jewish-oriented subjects.

We now have an Open Door policy for both the Rabbi's study and the President's office.

Please stop by or make an appointment to speak with us on any issue or concern you may have.

Please get involved in the activities that we offer.

If you have any ideas that may help increase your interest and add to our membership, please let us know.

We will be more 'User-Friendly' as we grow our membership.

I am excited about our future; I hope you will share with us all the benefits of the TAS Jewish experience.

Thank you all for your support,

Tony Krisman

President

A heart-felt thank you to friends who thoughtfully donated to the temple in honor of my Birthday.
Sincerely, Florence Ull

A Tribute to Trudi and Dr. Lou Brown

With a spirit of true humility and a quietly unassuming presence, Trudi and Dr. Lou Brown remind us all how quietly passionate people can effect lasting, positive change. Their steadfast devotion to education, advocacy, and compassion has been felt through consistent, meaningful actions that often go unnoticed by the wider world.

Born in Germany, Lou credits his father's foresight and smarts at keeping the family alive by finding the way to escape in May of 1938. Coming to America and enrolling in medical school became the essence of the American dream.

Lou and Trudi met at the JCC in Hartford, CT while still in high school. They married one week after Lou graduated from college. Next came medical school, one year of internship and two years of active duty in the Navy for Lou. Year one was with a destroyer squadron in Norfolk, Virginia during the Cuban missile crisis and year two was in Washington D.C. when President Kennedy was assassinated—both very exciting times.

Afterwards, the couple moved to Brooklyn for a six-year residency, leading to a 30-year career in thoracic and vascular surgery in Hartford Connecticut. The "hard work" fell on Trudy who raised their three children. Lou Proudly admits that it was Trudy who is responsible for the success of their daughter, who became a dentist, and two sons who became a lawyer and a physician.

Having a close relationship with their children and grandchildren is what brought them to Florida, when a grandson was graduating from Lynn University and two other grandchildren were in the University of Miami. After moving around from the Florida West Coast to the East Coast, they decided that Delray Beach and Anshei Shalom presented the best environment for what they desired: a friendly, loving community.

Married for sixty-eight years, Lou and Trudi Brown can be seen on holidays and most Friday nights enjoying Kabbalat Shabbat at TAS. We honor Trudi and Lou Brown for their remarkable contributions, and the love they shared with family, friends, and their community. Because of their influence, we carry forward their example of compassion, strength, and integrity. Thank you, Trudi and Lou, for showing us what it means to live with purpose and heart.

Leah Polin

The Letters of Abigail Levy Franks

A glimpse into the colonial life of an American Jewish family

Leah is a frequent lecturer and presenter in both the Chicago area and the Boynton Beach/Delray Beach area, on subjects re: women, Jewish history and current events. She engages her audience and her passion for learning shines forth.

The Levys and the Franks were early Jewish settlers in the New World. Through letters Abigail wrote to her children we can understand her dreams for her children in America. Are they different from those of modern parents today and what was the Outcome?

March 12

Neil Keller

Jewish Athletes during the Holocaust

Neil is a Jewish Historian, who since 1986 has been collecting memorabilia of famous Jewish people. The collection is now over 22,000 items. With the extreme rise in anti-Semitism, Neil is now focusing on the 1,000 artifacts of his collection of memorabilia that can humanize these Jewish people that the Nazis dehumanized. Neil has spoken at an International Holocaust conference and had been to Capital Hill to meet with politicians and assist with the Holocaust Education bill and the Anti-Semitism Awareness Act.

Neil will bring some of his memorabilia.

March 19

Joyce M.Saltman, Ed.D.

Funny You Don't Look Jewish!

Joyce is a professor and humorist. She is known as the "Guru of Laughter." Joyce herself will tell you she is "World Famous in Connecticut & Florida."

The session will deal with celebrities who happen to be Jewish, even though we may not have been unaware of their religious affiliation!!!

Ken Green

The Erotic World of Gustav Klimpt

Dr. Ken Green remains affiliated with the Huntington Art League (LI., NY.) and Lake Worth Art League. He is a member of the American Society of Artists & Art Historians. Dr. Green has lectured at FAU Boca Raton Museum Artists Guild, Lynn University & JCC Mandel Center. He is currently engaged in research focusing on Art History & Recovery of Stolen Art.

Gustav Klimpt is best remembered as the painter of The Lady in Gold and The Kiss. Klimpt is acclaimed as Vienna's master of Art Nouveau. Klimt is particularly acclaimed for painting numerous women from the period's elitist Jewish families and seemed to work his sexual magnetism on many of them. This visually enhanced program will explore Klimt's mixture of eclecticism and fantastic style against the glitter & biography of this trans formative artist.

~ Oneg and Kiddush Sponsorship Opportunities ~

Sponsoring an oneg or kiddush is a beautiful way to pay tribute to a loved one, celebrate a birthday, anniversary, graduation, a personal accomplishment, or a ritual honor.

It is also a great way to foster community—facilitating fellow congregants to catch up with friends, meet new members and guests.

Contact the synagogue office to discuss sponsorship
